

Significant Mental Health Situation Resources for Employees

Mental Health Crises can occur on any day, at any time, and sometimes, without warning. When experiencing a significant mental health situation, you can quickly become overwhelmed and struggle to quickly identify resources for assistance. If you or a family member experiences a mental health crisis and needs support in managing the situation, please refer to the resources below.

Key Point: If you believe that you or a family member is in crisis and needs to seek immediate intervention, call 911.

Employees and covered family members participating in one of the state's health plans for state government employees can access mental health services through the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offered with their health plan.
