

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Application: Full-time and part-time classified, probationary, "at will," and wage employees, and applicants for employment.

PURPOSE

Provides that all aspects of human resource management be conducted without regard to race, sex, color, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, veteran status, political affiliation, genetics, or disability in accordance with the Governor's Executive Order on Equal Opportunity and state and federal laws. (For the purpose of this policy, "disability" is defined in accordance with the "Americans with Disabilities Amendments Act" and "genetics" in accordance with Title II of the Genetic Information Non-Discrimination Act.)

Policy amended January, 11, 2014 per Executive Order Number 1 (2014) Equal Opportunity.

AUTHORITY

The Department of Human Resource Management issues this policy pursuant to the authority provided in Chapter 12, Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia.

The Director of the Department of Human Resource Management is responsible for official interpretation of this policy, in accordance with Chapter 12, Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia. Questions regarding the application of this policy should be directed to the Department of Human Resource Management's Office of Agency Human Resource Services

The Department of Human Resource Management reserves the right to revise or eliminate this policy.

PROVISIONS OF THE GOVERNOR'S EXECUTIVE ORDER

Prohibits Discrimination

- Prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of race, sex, color, national origin, religion, age, veteran status, political affiliation, genetics, or against otherwise qualified persons with disabilities.

- Does not permit the lowering of bona fide job requirements, performance criteria, or qualifications in order to give preference to any state employee or applicant for state employment on the basis of the above prohibitions.
- Prohibits all employees, including agency heads, managers, and supervisors, from taking retaliatory action against any person making allegations of violations of the Executive Order.

Emphasizes Recruitment Efforts

Directs agency heads and managers to take measures, as determined by the Director of the Department of Human Resource Management (DHRM), to emphasize the recruitment of qualified minorities, women, persons with disabilities, and older persons to serve at all levels of state government.

Provides Procedures for Alleging Violations of Executive Order

Any state employee or applicant for state employment may file an allegation of violation of the Executive Order with the Office of Equal Employment Services (OEES) in the Department of Human Resource Management.

EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES COVERED

The prohibition against employment discrimination applies to all aspects of the hiring process and employment practices, including:

- hiring, demotion, promotion, role change, in-band adjustment, layoff, and transfer;
- performance management and employee development;
- corrective actions, including disciplinary actions; and compensation, pay practices, benefits, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.

EXECUTIVE ORDER COMPLIANCE

All Cabinet secretaries, agencies and their employees are responsible for complying with the prohibition against workplace discrimination.

Develop Policy Statement and Inform Employees

Each agency is required to develop an equal employment opportunity compliance policy statement, and to inform employees of the Executive Order and the agency's commitment to equal employment opportunity.

Individual Responsibility/Job Performance

Agency heads, managers, and supervisors are responsible for their agencies' compliance with this policy, and for the consistent application of this policy. Support of equal employment opportunity initiatives shall be considered in the evaluation of each manager's job performance. All employees are responsible for conducting themselves in a manner consistent with the Governor's Executive Order.

Management/ Supervisory Training

Agencies are responsible for providing appropriate training opportunities covering all aspects of human resource management to ensure that policies, guidelines and pay practices are applied without regard to race, sex, color, national origin, religion, age, veteran status, political affiliation, genetics, or disability.

EEO Compliance Review

In accordance with guidelines issued by DHRM, agencies shall provide complete and accurate data via the State's automated information system by August 1st of each year for the prior fiscal year to generate a statistical analysis report of employment related practices.

DHRM RESPONSIBILITIES

The Office of Equal Employment Services (OEES) of DHRM is responsible for ensuring compliance with the Executive Order as outlined below.
