Day Translations, Inc. is proud and honored to serve the government of the Commonwealth of Virginia. As their language services provider, we extend a 10 percent discount on all the language services requirements of the appointed and elected government officials and employees of the state. The Commonwealth serves more than 8 million residents, where some of the largest ethnic communities are Non-Hispanic Whites. The population of Virginia is quite diverse, with a large African American community, whose ancestors worked in the hemp, cotton and tobacco plantations of Virginia. The state has a large community of migrants who speak various languages, including Spanish, Korean, Vietnamese, Mandarin and other Chinese languages and Filipino.

Language Services for the Government of Virginia

Day Translations aim to provide various language services to the Government of Virginia, one with such a multi-ethnic composition. We offer certified translations, document translations, legal translations, medical translations and business and finance translations. We are also capable of providing assistance on immigration and passport requirements as well as interpreting services. Day Translations is open 24/7, all days of the week. We are happy to serve any time of the day. We are easily reached through phone and email.
