RICHMOND TIMES-DISPATCH NAMES TREASURY A WINNER OF THE GREATER RICHMOND AREA TOP WORKPLACES 2024 AWARD

Richmond, Virginia, April 16, 2024 - Treasury has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2024 honor by Richmond Times-Dispatch Top Workplaces. This list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage LLC. The confidential survey uniquely measures the employee experience and its component themes, including employees feeling Respected & Supported, Enabled to Grow, and Empowered to Execute, to name a few.

“Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “That’s something to be proud of. In today’s market, leaders must ensure they’re allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That’s paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends.”

ABOUT

The Virginia Department of the Treasury serves as the central state agency, providing statewide financial services for agencies and institutions of the Commonwealth. Treasury has six service area divisions: General Management, Debt Management, Risk Management, Operations, Cash Management and Investments and Unclaimed Property. The State Treasurer reports directly to the Secretary of Finance, which is a cabinet position reporting directly to the Governor. Treasury is responsible for the investment of state monies, issuance and management of the short and long-term financing needs of the Commonwealth, administration of the state's unclaimed property and escheat laws, administration of insurance and risk management programs, management of the state's banking network, development of cash management programs, and check issuance services.
