

HR Highlights January 2023

DVS Asks Support for a License Plate Honoring Virginia Women Veterans

Virginia has more than 107,000 women veterans. The Department of Veteran Services (DVS) is asking for support in the effort to recognize them by having a license plate for Virginia women veterans approved by the 2023 General Assembly. 450 pre-applications are needed to present to the Virginia General Assembly.

Click here to download the application form. Contact information and instructions are included.