

DHRM HR Highlights October 2020

Video Interview Contract Available for Agency Use

Is your agency looking for a way to create efficiencies and streamline your hiring process? DHRM and VITA are pleased to announce the availability of an optional use contract for video interview services with HireVue, an industry leader in video interview software.

In collaboration with partners at VITA, DHRM has established a contract with HireVue that is available for agency use for on-demand and live video interview services. Agencies can access information about the contract at this link: Online Interviewing System. DHRM plans to schedule and host a webinar to share more information and a demonstration of the software soon.

Special thanks to Ernest Barnes, Human Resource Manager DBHDS, Telvis Jefferson, Senior Human Resources Generalist DCR, James Lock, Infrastructure Administration Expert DHRM, and Roger Smith, Director of Talent Acquisition Strategy/Assistant Division Administrator VDOT who supported this project as members of the inter-agency evaluation team.

If your agency has any questions about this contract or product, please contact Deanna Goldstein, Sr. Talent Management Consultant.
